Spend Your Money in Macleod

Purchases representing thousands of dollars are lost to us, to our trade, to our clerks and employees, to our laborers and artisans, to all the people of Macleod who exist on the products of their work. This money, if spent at home, would help to recreate Macleod financially, give a wider field of activities in business, would be helpful to every resident of this town.

If we purchased regularly from local merchants, this money would circulate in Macleod in a welcome manner. Our merchants merit our patronage; it is to our interest, and the duty of all of us, to encourage the local merchant. He is one of us, he lives among us, he has the right to be encouraged by us, he is anxious to have our custom, and to give us satisfaction. We should under all circumstances give him preference, price for price, quality for quality. And nearly always the price that our local merchant asks is, if we compare the quality, just as cheap as that of the outside merchant.

Never purchase merchandise by catalogues from foreign houses before assuring yourself that you cannot procure the same articles, of the same quality (and frequently of better quality) at the same price from your local merchant.

Edmonton, Feb. 28.—Notice of the introduction of a bill to amend the Public Utility Act so as to permit appeals from decisions of the board on questions of rates to the provincial cabinet, and on questions of law to the appellate division of the supreme court, has been given in the legislature by D. M. Duggan, former mayor of Edmonton and now Conservative member from that city.

The bill is the outgrowth of the quarrel over Edmonton gas rates and the suspension of that city's gas franchise to make way for rates fixed by the public utility board.

Wide Authority

Section 1 of the proposed bill would give the lieutenant-governor-in-council authority at any time, upon petition of any party, person or company, or upon his own, to motion to vary or rescind any order, decision, rule or regulation of the board, whether such order or decision, rule or regulation of the board, whether such order or decision is made in-part or otherwise, and whether such regulation is general or limited in its scope and application.

The section provides that any such order issued by the cabinet in this manner "shall be binding upon the board and upon all parties."

Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 of the bill provide for the method of appeals on questions of jurisdiction and of law from decisions of the public utility board to the appellate division of the supreme court.

Leave for appeal must be obtained from a judge of the appellate division or from the board within a month after the making of the order appealed from. After leave has been obtained, the appeal must be entered in the registrar's office within sixty days, together with $250 as security for costs.

"On the hearing of an appeal," reads section 7, "the said appellate division may draw all such inferences as are not inconsistent with the facts expressly found by the board, or law, as the case may be, and shall certify its opinion to the board and the board shall make an order in accordance with such opinion."

Other sections provide that the board may be represented by counsel at the hearing of an appeal, gives the appellate division authority to fix all costs and fees and exempts the board and any of its members from any costs by reason of an appeal.

Another thing about old Dobbin. You didn't need to put any anti-freeze in him.

THE EMPRESS THEATRE — CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

SIGHT SEEING TOUR SEEN ON THE SCREEN — GOTHAM LANDMARKS PROVIDED BACK GROUND FOR EXCITING MELODRAMA, "NEW YORK"

Times Square on a rainy night as frantic theater-goers hail loaded taxicabs. Moonlight on the East River—Starched nurses showing millionaire babies the animals in the Central Park Zoo—Norman Trevor in his latest Bond Street suit—The Woolworth Building towering over downtown Manhattan.

Orchard street's teeming push-cart market... The Plaza Hotel, rendezvous of debutantes... The Cortez and Lois Wilson taking the air from the top of Fifth Avenue bus... Broadway and its electric signs... The gilded rooster on the Hecksher Building tower... A patient crowd waiting to catch a glimpse of celebrities.

The Central Park Lake where sailors go rowing on their days off... Upper Fifth Avenue and the Metropolitan Museum... "Skeeter"—a musical comedy star and William Powell, the movie villain... The Washington Square Arch, connecting link between Fifth Avenue and Greenwich Village... Estelle Taylor on the steps of City Hall... What's she doing?

Trolley cars rattling over Manhattan Bridge... Tag boats chugging under Brooklyn Bridge... How would you like to live in a bungalow atop a skyscraper?... Welfare Island, where the "morning after" lasts thirty days... The line at the box office of the Rivoli Theater... A destroyer steaming up to the Brooklyn Navy Yard... Bustled in front of the Public Library.

Every one of these people and places are to be seen in the Paramount picture, "New York," coming to the Empress Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Luther Reed directed.

When "Chip of the Flying U," the latest Universal production, starring Hoot Gibson opens at the Empress Theatre Friday and Saturday night picture goers here will have an opportunity to see a screen version of one of the most popular western novels ever written.

"Chip of the Flying U" was written about fifteen years ago by B. M. Bower. It is a semi-humorous story, set on a western cattle ranch, with "Chip" Bennett, a cowboy and amateur cartoonist, as the hero.

The book proved to be one of the most popular stories of this type ever written. Hundreds of thousands of copies of it were sold, and it has been re-printed many times since its original publication.

Screen rights to the popular story were purchased by Universal about two years ago, with the plan of making it a starring vehicle for Hoot Gibson.

Filming of it was postponed, for various reasons, after the original announcement of its purchase had been made. So many Gibson fans, who had read of the plans for the book, wrote to the offices of Universal urging that the story be filmed immediately, so it was moved up on the production schedule by order of Carl Laemmle, president of the company.

"Chip of the Flying U" was adapted to the screen by Harry Dittmar and Lynn Reynolds, and directed by Reynolds.

In addition to the star, the large cast includes Virginia Brown Faire, Philo McCullough, DeWitt Jennings, Harry Todd, Mark Hamilton, Gilbert "Pee Wee" Holmes and others.

"CHIP OF FLYING U" PROMISES TO BE A GREAT GIBSON FILM—HOOT TO STAR AT EMPRESS IN MOVIE FROM FAMOUS NOVEL WITH BIG CAST

With one of the best known novels ever written in America, one of the brightest stars in the cinema solar system, and one of the biggest assets that the star has ever had, "Chip of the Flying U," which comes to the Empress Theatre Friday and Saturday gives promise of being one of the season's best pictures.

The picture was adapted from the novel of the same name written by B. M. Bower. The book ranks as one of the most popular and widely read novels written in the last fifteen years.

Hoot Gibson, whose work in such pictures as "The Calgary Stampede," "The Flaming Frontier," "Let 'Er Buck," "Spook Ranch" and other pictures, has made him popularly the most popular western star on the screen, plays the title part of "Chip" Bennett.

The supporting cast contains many well-known film names. Virginia Brown Faire lends feminine charm to the leading role opposite the star. Philo McCullough offers another of his suavely villainous characterizations as "the other man."

DeWitt Jennings, Mark Hamilton, Harry Todd and Gilbert "Pee Wee" Holmes play important and amusing character roles.

"Chip of the Flying U" was directed by Lynn Reynolds, who made House Peters' latest starring production for Universal, "Combat," Harry Dittmar adapted the story to the screen from Bower's novel.

22 MINERS ARE KILLED—NEWPORT, ENGLAND, MINE TRAGEDY—FEAR 25 MORE MAY BE VICTIMS

Newport, England, March 1.—An explosion occurred in a marine colliery here this morning and the fate of about seventy-five men is unknown. There were 135 men at work at the time and between sixty and seventy of them were able to reach the surface.

The managers attempted to descend into the shaft but were overcome by the fumes.

Newport, England, March 1.—At noon today 22 bodies were reported to have been found in the marine colliery where an explosion occurred this morning. Three injured men who could not be removed were still entombed and it was feared might be dead. The gas was so bad that rescue work was suspended to allow ventilation of the mine. The fumes seriously hampered the efforts of a large body of rescuers to reach the missing men. Many of the rescuers had to receive medical treatment, but the volunteers of the district immediately took their place.

The members of the night shift were working in a special part of the pit when the explosion occurred. During the darkness of the early morning about eighty-five were brought up alive, many of them badly gassed.

Distressing scenes were witnessed at the pit head where relatives of the entombed men waited for news as the rescue parties came up.

MACLEOD HOCKEY TEAM WINS FOOTHILLS LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Macleod Hockey Team last Thursday night won the championship in the Foothills Hockey League for the season 1926-27, when they defeated the Claresholm team in the final game on the Claresholm ice before the largest crowd of hockey fans seen at any of the league games throughout the season. It was estimated that over 600 were present, all the league towns being represented, and from 80 to a 100 went from Macleod alone to cheer their youthful team to victory.

The game was very late in starting to give the ice a chance to harden, as it was soft in places, and not conducive to real good hockey. However both teams made the best of it, and gave a very nice exhibition of clean, fast hockey. Thanks to the firm hand of J. Alexander, judge of play, and Aleck Allan, the referee, there was practically no rough play, only one or two minor penalties being handed out. There was no spectacular play witnessed, just a good honest brand of speed and stick handling, of which the Macleod boys had the best of it, coming out on top with a score of 4-2.

The first game the previous evening at Macleod being a tie, this game gave them a lead of 2 goals, thus making them victors winning the coveted championship.

In the first period Townsend scored the first goal for Macleod to Claresholm's nil. In the second period, Powers found the first opening for Claresholm, and placed the puck in the Macleod net. Macleod failing to increase their score the period finished with a tie, one all. Just before the close of the second period, Townsend was knocked out, having collided with one of the Claresholm players, and Graham was sent on to take his place, for the remainder of the period. When the third period opened it was observed that both teams were out for blood by the determined effort on both sides. A few minutes after opening, Graham, assisted by Dean landed the puck past the Claresholm goalie. Shortly after O'Neill shot the third goal for Macleod, and then Palmer was successful in passing the eagle eyed "Tex" with the second and last goal for Claresholm.

Dillingham, before the close of the period, finished up the score for Macleod with the fourth goal. "Tex" was at his best, playing a wonderful game his eagle eye was right on the puck all the time and he stopped many a well aimed shot. The same can also be said of Paulson the Claresholm goalie, they were both right on their job.

The line up was: Macleod Goal, "Tex" McDonald; defence, Dillingham, S. McDonald, Dillingham, Dean, O'Neill, Townsend, Subb, Graham, Lings, Claresholm goal, Paulson; forwards, Powers, McGregor, Amundson, Subs Hobkirk, Laidlaw, Thomson, Edlund, Referee, Aleck Allan, Staveley, Judge of play, J. Alexander, Pincher Creek. The duties of these two gentlemen were very faithfully carried out, and were most satisfactory to all concerned.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS

The nature and variety of the comments made on the wealth of Henry Ford are both interesting and amusing. Shrewd guessers estimate that Ford is worth two billion dollars. This may be true, but we have not noticed any confirmation or denial of this statement from Mr. Ford himself, and the guessers continue in the intoxicating pastime of the study of the incomputable. The perplexing theory of relativity becomes still more perplexing to the average man of moderate resources when he thinks of Ford and his billions.

Henry Ford has been lauded for many things, his industrial genius, his originality, his organizing ability, his ideas regarding higher wages and increased consumption, and his numerous innovations in production and distribution.

His methods have proved so successful, that long ago he entered into the happy condition in which the family budget ceased to worry him and the payment of the monthly bills did not exhaust his bank balance; to have been able to accomplish that alone would be enough to make the majority of men think that their lives had not been entirely a failure.

Many earnest citizens are asking what is Ford with his billions doing for the good of humanity? That is Henry Ford's own business, and, until the final disposition of his wealth has been made, it will remain his personal affair.

Henry Ford "minds his own business," and if he did not possess this cardinal virtue, his name would not be an international symbol of success.

BRITAIN'S DILEMMA

Of all the western powers who possess treaty rights and concessions in China, Great Britain seems to be singled out as the chief offender against the principles of justice and equity as these principles are interpreted by the newly-awakened national consciousness of China.

That Britain recognizes the validity of China's demands for a modification or revision of the unequal treaties is shown by the fact, that a year ago she endeavored to secure the active aid of all the powers with like interests to her own, to a friendly reconsideration of trade treaties and concessions, but to this proposal the powers have not agreed.

Britain established her power in China in the early-Victorian period, and the methods employed were in accordance with the prevailing practice adopted by a strong nation in its dealings with a weaker one; might was right, and the weaker nation accepted the inevitable and made the best of it. The stronger nation also made the best of its bargain by developing trade and shipping facilities which required the investment of a vast amount of money, legalized and protected by formal treaties.

The British merchants, manufacturers and bankers who have risked their money in China have a sublime faith in the sacredness of treaties, and rightly look to the mother-land to protect their interests, both present and future.

Britain is in a dilemma; she cannot use military force to perpetuate treaty rights which she has admitted should be materially modified, neither can she leave British subjects and their property unprotected. In the present state of civil war in the country, and the usurpation of authority by different leaders, it is impossible to negotiate new treaties with any one faction that would be legally binding on the whole nation.

CO-OPERATING FOR TOURISTS

The department of customs has announced that the permits for the automobiles of tourists entering Canada has been extended from 30 to 60 days. This means that tourists will be able to double the length of their stay in this country without the payment of any extra customs fees on their cars.

It is a measure that has been long overdue.

The tourist industry in this country is worth millions of dollars a year. It can only be preserved and built up by the fullest co-operation between civil, provincial and federal authorities.

This new customs ruling is certainly a step in the right direction. But the fact that it has been so long delayed indicates the lamentable lack of national machinery for the encouragement of the tourist business.

Cities and provinces make their own individual tourist efforts. What is needed is national co-operation to secure for the tourist maximum convenience with minimum trouble.

NEWEST DIX COMEDY HAS DRAMA AND LAUGHS

"Paradise for Two," Richard Dix' newest comedy-drama, directed by Gregory La Cava, arrives at the Empress Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Dix has an especially strong supporting cast in this picture. Betty Bronson is featured as Sally Lane, the pretty little stage-struck girl who poses as his wife to help him collect a legacy of which his uncle Howard (Edmund Bruce) is the trustee. Andre Bernier as Maurice, the theatrical producer lives up to his reputation of comedian de luxe. The picture was adapted from an original story written especially for the screen by Howard Emmett Rogers.

WHY THE RED CROSS HAS A PEACE TIME PROGRAMME—
CANADA IN THE FRONT
RANK IN HEALTH WORK

"Why has the Red Cross a Peace time Programme? And why did the Canadian Red Cross go on with its work after the war?" These two questions were asked Dr. F. W. Routley, Director of the Ontario Division of the Canadian Red Cross when he returned very recently from a three months' sojourn in France where he was in charge of the Health section of the League of Red Cross Societies which is composed of fifty-six nations, all of whom are "carrying on" in peace time as energetically as they did during the war.

"The reason for the peace time programme of the Red Cross," said Dr. Routley, "is that the war revealed some very startling facts with regard to the physical condition of the world's manhood. Never before had such immense numbers of men been subjected to medical examination and the results were astounding. A summary of the medical reports on the British draftees showed that of every nine men three were fit, three were infirm, two almost physical wrecks and one a chronic invalid. In Canada we found that almost exactly one half the draftees were physically unfit for full service in the field. In all countries similar conditions were found. Our long-held illusion that in peace there need be no struggle to attain and maintain health among the people was forever dissipated. It was for the first time realized that good health is a fundamental essential to all national greatness and that it cannot be found in war times unless it has existed in times of peace.

"Soon after the Armistice the Five Great Powers (Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and the United States) became active in the initiation of a committee 'to formulate and to propose to the Red Cross Societies of the world an extended programme of Red Cross work in the interests of humanity'. A conference of medical experts—one of the most remarkable gatherings of authorities on health questions the world had seen—met at Cannes in April 1919 and decided after careful deliberations, 'that a non-political organization such as the Red Cross would be able to educate the public regarding the means of prevention of disease, and would be in many other ways able to stimulate, support and aid all governments in their health work'.

"So in the Covenant of the League of Nations, at the request of all the nations participating in the Peace Conference a Special Article was inserted defining a peace time programme for the Red Cross Societies was formally brought into being. Headquarters of the League are in Paris where a staff of nearly one hundred health experts representing many nations carry on the work of the Secretariat which consists of the Divisions of Nursing, Disaster Relief, Junior Red Cross and the Health and Publications sections where any own work lay.

"The League, in my opinion is doing an invaluable work toward the rehabilitation of many of the war-torn countries of Europe; it is making equally invaluable contributions to the cause of preventive medicine through the collection and dissemination by its experts of the best health knowledge; and it was most gratifying to find that Canada occupies a front rank position in public health work and is shoulder to shoulder in methods and vision with the four or five great nations of the world.

"Our Canadian Nursing Outpost Hospitals, the first of their kind in the world, our Junior Red Cross which began in 1914 with one small group in Montreal, our Visiting Housekeepers' plan for assisting distressed families and our general procedure with regard to health work in Canada I found to be all matters of the greatest interest to my fellow workers in Europe. Several countries are already imitating our Outpost Hospitals idea. It has spread to Australia, Norway, Sweden, Poland and Bulgaria; the Germans are trying out in some of their bigger cities the Visiting Housekeeper plan and there is universal enthusiasm regarding the immense possibilities of the Junior Red Cross which began with us but has now a membership of over ten millions throughout the world. Of the great tasks being undertaken in Europe by the Red Cross I found the re-establishment of the Bulgarian refugees of perhaps the most intense interest but there is much else to arrest attention. An international course in public health nursing has been recently inaugurated at Bedford College, England for nurses from all countries and already there are women from fourteen different countries in attendance. Just think what Florence Nightingale would have thought of that as a stride in preventive medicine and the healing arts! But it is only one sample of the constructive work which is being undertaken in a dozen different directions by the League of Red Cross Societies in its peace time programme."

During the past summer, a considerable number of farmers who grew Garnet wheat in the Prairie Provinces, had an official inspection made of their growing crops, by officers of the Federal Seed Branch, in order that they might be in a position to furnish assurance as to the genuineness of any seed of the above variety which they might have for sale. Lists of these growers whose fields were approved have been compiled and are now available on application to any of the Federal Experimental Farms located in the above territory.

The Experimental Farms themselves also are offering seed of the above variety again this winter but they have been obliged to put a limit upon the number of bushels any one farmer may purchase. The price set by these institutions for seed is $3.00 per bushel. F.O.B. shipping point. Prospective purchasers are advised to insist on the seed they order coming from officially approved crops, if at all possible, in order to avoid disappointment. While the above variety, even at its best, is not pure enough as yet to qualify either as Registered Seed, or as Extra No. 1 seed, yet it is considered good enough in those cases where the fields have been approved, to permit a comparison to be made between it and other varieties grown in the district. Elite Stock seed, which is the basis of all Registered Seed, is being developed as rapidly as possible, but it will be at least a couple of years before this class of seed will be available in sufficient quantity to provide those who wish to produce Registered Seed with enough to make a reasonable start in the production of the latter class of seed.

Approximately forty of the creameries in operation in the province will be included in the dairy pool the coming season, it is announced by the pool officials. This is nearly half of all the creameries operating in the province. The pool is handling about eighty-five per cent. of the dairy business in the northern half of the province.

Amusement Tax
Over 200,000 dollars was paid by the people of the province in amusement tax during the past year; of this amount, the four cities paid something like $156,000.

The gasoline tax brought $423,700 during the year, a considerable increase over the previous year. The automobile licenses brought $1,154,000, there being a total of $4,122 licenses an increase of more than 11,000 over 1925.

Importance of Registered Seed
Alberta farmers are urged by the Government to obtain registered seed wherever possible for their grain crops. The importance of using the best quality of seed obtainable is emphasized in statements made by the Minister of Agriculture for the province, the officials of the Seed Departments, and of the Seed Growers' Association.

A striking illustration of the value of good seed has been obtained in an experiment which the University has been conducting during the past three seasons. Samples of seed wheat from the University were sent to various places in the province from south to north. The harvested seed was returned and graded, and the samples ran at least one grade better than the average samples coming from the same districts. "Why can't all farmers grow wheat like this?" has been asked. The answer is "So they could, easily, if they would use as good seed."

Budget Balanced
The Alberta Government has balanced its accounts for the year 1926, with a small surplus, it was announced by Premier Brownlee to the Legislature this week. The surplus will not be as large as at first estimated, owing to the added costs of the general election. It is proposed to change the financial year of the Government to end March 31st.

Creamery Short Course
A three weeks' creamery course is now being offered jointly by the University and the Department of Agriculture, to commence Tuesday morning, March 8th, 1927, in the Laboratory Building, University of Alberta. The course is intended primarily for persons with some practical experience in creamery work. There will be no tuition fee. Arrangement may be made for room and board at the time of registration.

Although this is to be a three weeks' course, the programme of lectures and practical work will be so arranged that creamery men who have not the time to take in the full course may plan a shorter stay for the study of the lines of work that interest them most.

An outline of the programme is now being prepared and will be furnished upon request.

Bonus to Beet Growers
An additional bonus of 50 cents a ton has been made payable to sugar beet growers in southern Alberta, by the Raymond sugar factory. This brings the net price to growers up to $6.75 a ton.

Forage Crop Train
Excellent meetings continue on the forage crop train now touring central Alberta. Next week the train will commence its tour of C.N.R. lines, starting at Beiseker on March 1st.

THREE NATIONS ARE ON GUARD AT SHANGHAI
Shanghai, Feb. 26.—Shanghai was an international armed camp today with troops of Great Britain, France and Italy ready for action, should the narrowing lines of Chinese factional warfare be drawn too close to Shanghai's international settlement. Offshore, riding at anchor, United States war craft, carrying 2,400 bluejackets, waited, ready to land the forces only in the event of danger to United States lives and property in Shanghai.

Into this warlike atmosphere, the Northern Chinese poured a stream of troop trains from Nanking, carrying soldiers under the command of General Chang Tsung-Chang, war lord of Shantung province, rushing to the aid of the shattered forces of Marshal Chuan Fang, whose army has been giving ground to the advancing forces of the Cantonese now nearing Shanghai.

Marshal Sun's troops were moving northward along the railroad right-of-way south of Shanghai with a force of approximately 16,000 men, too weak in numbers and morale to make a last stand against the advancing Cantonese who have had a path of victory through practically half of China.

28 Miles From Shanghai
The opposing armies faced each other today at Sung Kiang, on the railway line just 28 miles south of Shanghai. Reports received here indicated that both sides were preparing for a fight, the retreating northerners tearing up the railroad tracks to prevent further advances on the part of the Cantonese.

At the boundaries of the international settlement at Shanghai, British, French and Italian soldiers were on duty, with a 20-mile line of troops, runs and barbed wire.

The troops of Gen. Chang Tsung-Chang are expected to back up the worn forces of Sun Kiang and march south to join the defending Chinese army at any time. Without this aid, the remnant of Marshal Sun's army would be viewed as easy prey for the conquering Cantonese.

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF THIS COMMUNITY

Remember Then That:

The business of a town is its very life-blood.

The stores and business houses are not alone for the merchants.

Prosperous merchants will make the community prosper.

The more buyers there are in a town, the greater "turn over" the merchants will have, and thus the more they will be able to reduce prices and increase the quality of the goods they sell.

Thus By Trading at Home

with the home town merchants the people of Macleod become the builders of their own community.

No True Citizen

will stunt the natural growth and expansion of his home town by fostering the mail order business of far away communities.

Buy At Home

not to help the merchants, but to help the home community and yourself.

UNITED CHURCH LETHBRIDGE PRESBYTERY IN SESSION AT MACLEOD

The Lethbridge Presbytery of the United Church met in Macleod this (Tuesday) afternoon, at which all the ministers of the Presbytery and a number of laymen were present. On arrival at noon they were entertained to lunch in the church parlor.

The following ministers were present: Dr. Ferguson, superintendent of missions; Rev. J. H. Garden, Pincher Creek; Joseph Lee, Barons; W. Oliver, Bellevue; H. W. Stevens, Cardston; N. F. Priestley, Coaldale; H. J. Bevan, Coihurst; R. J. Griffith, Cowley; F. E. James, Fishburn; C. S. Pinder, Hillcrest; A. F. Brett, Iron Springs; T. T. Faichney, Lethbridge; F. A. King, Lethbridge; W. H. Irwin, Macleod; H. C. Wood, Magrath; J. H. Selkirk, Milk River; H. Villett, Taber; T. A. Bowen, Retlaw. Laymen: Messrs. K. W. Reiko, Lethbridge; McKenzie and Henderson, Pincher Creek, and McRae, Fishburn.

Opening Service

After lunch the Rev. J. H. Garden, Pincher Creek, chairman of the Presbytery, presided and conducted the opening devotional exercises the Rev. J. Lee, Barons, acting as clerk of Presbytery.

The opening address was given by the Rev. W. H. Irwin, Macleod, who very forcibly stressed the devotional life on the part of all who are interested in the religious work of the church. The balance of the afternoon was taken up with reports the most important of which was the maintenance and extension fund report of the presbytery. The report showed that to date the sum of $500 was still short of the $8,000 aimed at for the year. But an extra special effort will be put forth during the next month to attain the objective. One speaker made special reference to the splendid effort of the Macleod congregation in going over the top, in raising the large sum required to clear off the debt on their church property.

At 6:30 the delegates to Presbytery were entertained to supper by the Men's Brotherhood of the church and after supper the hour before the evening session was spent in community singing and a number of the ministers gave short addresses. The special feature of this hour was a most interesting and instructive address by the Rev. M. G. Garabedian, who is an Armenian, describing in a most lucid and delightful manner his life and early days in Armenia and the customs of the country.

The evening session was opened by the Rev. Mr. Garden giving an address, the subject of which being "The Child in the Midst." He stressed the great importance of work among the young people, showing that out of a survey taken among 2,000 people, it was found that 13.7 per cent. connected themselves with the church at the age of 12 years, 50.5 per cent. from 12 to 17 years, 13.2 per cent. at 20 years; in all over 75 per cent. accepted Christ under 20 years of age. Investigation showed that when a person reached the age of 25 years there was only one chance in a thousand of that person ever becoming a Christian. Mr. Garden emphasized the importance and need of church membership, showing from his own experience that when people become definitely linked with the church as members they become more interested and effective in Christian service.

The second speaker of the evening was the Rev. N. F. Priestley, his subject being Evangelistic Work in the individual congregations. He made a number of valuable suggestions as to how this work can be best carried on throughout the various churches of the Presbytery.

The balance of the evening was devoted to committee work.

The concluding session of the Lethbridge presbytery was held in the United Church, Macleod, Wednesday morning. The session was opened by devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. Lee, Barons, who delivered a short, appropriate address.

The greater part of the morning was taken up with the report of the home mission committee, when an exhaustive discussion took place on the grants to the various mission fields, each of which had made application for grants of amounts thought necessary for the proper carrying on of the work in the their separate fields.

Religious Education

Another important report was presented by Rev. Mr. Garden on religion education which was very carefully considered, and it was agreed to make an extensive survey of the whole presbytery on this important phase of the church's work.

Resignations

Before the close of the session the following resignations of ministers were presented, and they were accepted by the presbytery with very great regret. The resignations take effect at the end of the conference year, and subject to conference: Rev. Selkirk, of Milk River; Rev. H. W. Stevens, Cardston; Rev. H. C. Wood, Magrath; Rev. W. T. Young, Blairmore; Rev. W. Oliver, Bellevue; Rev. T. A. Bowen, Retlaw.

At the close of the session the delegates were entertained at lunch in the church parlor, before leaving for their homes on the noon trains. It is stated that this meeting was the largest and most important held since the Lethbridge presbytery was organized, after the union.

GREAT BRITAIN ACCEPTS COOLIDGE PROPOSALS TO LIMIT NAVAL ARM- AMENTS

Washington, Feb. 28.—Great Britain's response to the overture for further naval limitation, received at the state department today, accepted President Coolidge's invitation to discuss the subject and said that the British delegates "would do their best to further the success of the proposed conversation."

Together with Japanese acceptance, the reply was regarded as probably opening the way for a three-power consideration of limitation of smaller classes of war craft in line with the principles applied to first line ships at the Washington conference.

The text of the British note follows: "His Majesty's government received with cordial sympathy the invitation of the government of the United States of America to take part in a conversation at Geneva on the further limitation of naval armament.

"The view of His Majesty's government on the special geographical position of the British empire, the length of the inter-imperial communications and the necessity for the protection of its food supplies are well known and together with the special conditions and requirements of the other countries invited to participate in the conversation must be taken into account.

"His Majesty's government are, nevertheless, prepared to consider to what extent the principles adopted at Washington can be carried further, either as regards the ratio in different classes of ships between the various powers or in other important ways. They, therefore, accept the invitation of the government of the United States of America and will do their best to further the success of the proposed conversation.

"They would, however, observe that the relationship of such a conversation to the proceedings of the preparatory commission at Geneva would require careful adjustment."

MARCH ROD AND GUN

With the spring and summer months looming ahead, the lovers of outdoor recreation are again looking to their tackle. The March number of Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News which has just appeared, has many interesting articles for those outdoorsmen. A very complete article on outfitting a 1028 canoe trip by C. P. Storey is an outstanding feature of the issue. Many other useful wrinkles are included in the regular "Fishing Notes" and "Outdoor Talk" and "Guns and Ammunition" departments.

Many interesting experiences are told in the hunting stories such as "A Holiday in the Rockies." Bonycastle Dale writes this month on the subject of the Nova Scotia men who fish for lobsters. Number 3 of Canadian Silver Fox News contains a great deal of useful material.

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

SWEET CLOVER SEED

The interest in Sweet Clover as a hay crop, a pasture crop, a soil crop is ever on the increase. The demand for Sweet Clover Seed this spring will be greater than ever, and the available supply is quite limited this year owing to unfavorable conditions for seed production last year.

We handle all seeds on a very close margin, so close that we are able to save you freight and express charges and the trouble of sending away. We suggest your placing your orders early, particularly orders for Sweet Clover Seed, to avoid disappointment. We shall have a fresh supply of Sweet Clover Culture on hand from time to time.

FORT MACLEOD CHAPTER EASTERN STAR CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The third birthday party of Fort Macleod Chapter No. 53 Order Eastern Star, was held last Monday night in the Odd Fellows' hall, when the members were at home to their friends of Macleod and district. The celebration took the form of a card party and dance, and about 150 accepted the invitation and were present to enjoy the hospitality of the ladies of the lodge. It is almost unnecessary to say that everyone had a most delightful time, as the ladies of the Star are now noted for having the happy faculty of providing such an entertainment that their guests at once feel at home and have a most enjoyable time from start to finish.

There were 32 tables of progressive whist, the prize winners being, ladies' first, Mrs. J. Swinerton; ladies' consolation, Mrs. G. V. McDonald; gentlemen's first, J. T. J. W. Morecash, Sgt. Webb and R. D. McNay shared the duties of M.C. for the cards, and dance. After the cards tasty refreshments were served.

REACH & COMPANY, Ltd.

GENERAL MERCHANTS—DRY GOODS, LADIES' AND MEN'S UNDERWEAR, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, VEGETABLES AND FRUITS.

Dear Sister Nora, Granum:—
Oh I'm nearly dead. This town is a scream, all the in-habs say it had a glorious past, but they have lost it. Will it ever come back. The bull and horse teams are a memory. The Indians were in evidence and the half bloods, the happy links of a merry chain being constantly added to by the influx of adventurous whites. Women's combinations ankle length are sometimes worn. Knee length the up-to-date girl don't use them. Fancy bloomers, long silk stockings and an abbreviated Rayon skirt represents a fully dressed girl. It certainly looks classy. The dry goods trade is demoralized. Dry Goods a week old is out of date. We keep on marking down but the silly fish won't bite. Granum is the only sensible town left. Yet we plug along waiting for a sensible reaction. We are putting some silk and wool combinations Watson's makes on our show case at $1.75, don't forget to tell your people about them. We have silk hose from 50c up, silk and wool hose the best makes at $1.25. The men are no better. No matter how tempting the prices are, it has no meaning to them. We have some of the celebrated Murray makes that are ticketed $7.00. These are sold in larger towns from $9.00 to $10.00. Some take another whiff at the pipe and pass on, waiting for an invitation from a friend with a car to go to Calgary or Lethbridge, of course they buy a pair forgetting the price in our window. Large towns can't sell as cheap, their overhead expenses are too high. Some stores pay $500.00 per month rent.
Good bye sister.

ed and a very pleasant half hour was spent round the tea tables. Dancing was then enjoyed for a couple of hours, the music being supplied by the Gaity Five orchestra.

The various committees carried out their duties in an admirable manner, as was testified by the guests expressing themselves as highly delighted with the evening's entertainment.

THAMES OVER BANKS—MILES OF VALLEY FLOODED

London, Feb. 28.—The Thames is out of its banks and the inhabitants in numerous places for miles along the valley have been forced to use boats to reach dry land.

CHARLES GREGORY, 71, PASSES AT MACLEOD

There died at the old men's home at the Macleod hospital Thursday night of last week Charles Gregory, at the age of 71 years. Mr. Gregory has been an inmate of the home since February, 1922, and was a well-known figure on the streets of Macleod up to a few months ago when his health began to fail. He was born in Indiana, and was for many years a farmer in Kentucky where he owned at one time considerable property. He came to Canada in the year 1912. The body is being sent to Eureka, Kansas, where he has a sister living, Mrs. H. M. Braden.
